ABOUT US

The main focus of A1 Hoops is helping athletes reach their next level in basketball.

What We Do

A1 Hoops Basketball LLC is committed to helping as many high school basketball players achieve their goal of playing in college on an athletic scholarship. We have built our platform for athletes to get an opportunity to be seen by college coaches. What makes A1 Hoops different from other basketball media outlets. A1 Hoops Founder Ayonna Thompson-Bowen played high school basketball at Mauldin High School where her jersey is retired alongside Kevin Garnett. She went on to play on scholarship at High Point University .

I want to thank @a1hoopsreport for putting together a great tournament. We had some really tough competition, but it made us better as a team. I wish @df_girlsbb and @ACFloraGBB the best of luck this year.
